

Pack 76 Annual Blue and Gold Buddy Cake Bake

Purpose: To provide all Cub Scouts and their Adult Helper - dads, brothers, grandpas, uncles, friends, etc. - an opportunity or excuse to wreak havoc on their kitchens.

To attempt to create a gourmet dessert that rivals any of the great chefs.

To earn a certificate for having tried your best to make a cake that looks, sounds, smells, feels, and tastes edible.

Rules: All rules must be followed.

Limit size Approximant the same as to 1 Jiffy Cake Mix Box, Must be able to have Scout carry into Meeting.

Only male cooks i.e. Cub Scout , advisors, and cleanup crews are allowed to participate. No advice, instructions, or help of any sort- including cleanup- is allowed from a girl.

The cake and all decorations should be completely edible. Don't use plastic, wax, wood, or any other inedible materials as part of the cake.

Cake and icing mixes are allowed; however, it is a known fact that the more from scratch you make it, the messier it can get. And the messier it gets, the more fun you have doing it.

Ladies, if you can stand it, are encouraged to watch, enjoy, and laugh about the experience. Make sure you get lots of photos!!

Certificates: Certificates will be awarded in the following categories:

Most Original Creation
Yummiest Looking
Biggest Cake
Smallest Cake

Tallest Cake
Gooiest Cake
Most Colorful Cake
Special Merit Cake

Best Themed Cake

After the Pack meeting, we will be having cakes for dessert! Try any and all!
